

Answer Key and Solutions

Exercise- 4

1. B. Despite the fact that growing popularity of Ayurveda ..... standards prevalent in international market.
2. C. If I were a poet, I could write poetry on the possibilities of the five fingers. (Mind is not the only source for learning).
3. C. They are not taught to make the right choice and so their education often proves their ruin. (This line implies that students must be taught what to choose but not how to learn. What if they learn something bad as that is implied in the next line).
4. C. It is time to examine the vexatious issue of inequalities through a different lens-view, namely of labour compensation and labour shares in national income. (The system does not resolve the vexatious issues).
5. B. Refer to the first and last lines of the passage.
6. C. The unfavorable situation arises because of globalization.
7. D. Refer to the first and last lines of the passage. The key concern of the passage is providing drinking water and sanitation.
8. B.
9. A. However, conversely there are empirical studies which indicate the FDI presence as.....
10. B. In order to reach the best suited model, various models with different variables need to be examined.....
11. C. While the most absorbing cricket match may last a day, elections can hold the attention of the society for almost two months.
12. B. The complexity of managing such a wide range of human emotions and action.....
13. C. Refer to first and last lines if the passage.
14. B. The preamble which is the basis of ..... balance and thereby strengthening the conservation regime.
15. A. . The indigenous peoples' rights law in Philippines, aboriginal titles of native Australians, participatory forest management.....

16. A. Refer to the first line and last lines of the passage and connect them with the main idea of the passage.
17. D. The statement is not discussed in the passage.
18. C. The phrase is related to the social implications of ads.
19. A. Accountability is one of the dominant requirements .....It is an obligation of the persons in power to explain publically.....There is yet another dominant reason for enhancing
20. A.
21. B. They were vague generalisations like inappropriate and unattractive teaching methods adopted by the teachers..... In view of this, the Kothari Commission endorsed the recommendations of the Dhebar Commission
22. C. States having scheduled areas to make specific provisions for giving wide-ranging powers.....
23. B. however, has undermined confidence in education as a vehicle for social mobility.
24. A. If other people can repeat it, it holds for real.
25. B. To doubt the Bible, according to the Church was, to doubt the word of God and thus committing a sacrilege punishable by death.
26. B. According to Bertrand Russell, there were many conflicts between science and religion throughout the history of humanity ..... One of the biggest conflicts between science and religion was unquestionably the position of the earth
27. B.
28. C.
29. D.
30. B.