

Answer Key and Solutions

Exercise- 11

1. C. Here again the Mahatma's prescriptions on the power of truthfulness gives us the direction of what path to follow....the life and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi offer a powerful avenue to discern on what path to tread
2. A. For the contemporary society, following the ideals of truthfulness is another important challenge.
3. B. That body was set up in 1946 by the Economic Social and Cultural Council of the UN, to make recommendations for promoting respect and observance of human rights on the untested theory that human rights-respecting regimes do not make war on other such regimes.
4. C. Malik's statement echoed the Preamble to the Universal Declaration proclaiming the instrument as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations who should "strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms.
5. B. Refer to the first and last paragraphs of the passage. In addition, the entire passage insists on implementing human rights education to educate the people on the importance of humanity in place of war.
6. D. For instance, a parent might leave the office in timedeadline but miss out on happy hour and a chance to connect with their colleagues due to responsibilities at home
7. B. Because it can be defined after conducting a study among the male and female workers by collecting relevant data and analyse them in relation to the recurrent issues. The last paragraph of the passage contains rhetorical questions, from which we can assume that can be easily defined and studied.
8. B. Yields become less reliable, causing hikes in food prices.
9. C. We can clearly see that some regions and countries are more vulnerable. However, some environmental impacts, like air pollution, affect everyone, albeit at varying degrees.
10. D. However, these modes of production have not been without their environmental costs.....Intensification in this manner exerts higher pressures on the environment, resulting in higher nitrogen pollution. There is also a strong link between our health and well-being and food.

11. A. Like water and energy, food is a basic human need. In addition to being available, food needs to be of high quality, diverse, accessible, safe for consumption and affordable.
12. A. The art form depicts retrograde social practices in order to.....
13. D. Made on the walls, ceilings and floor during What is special is the fact that the paintings are made with a series
14. B. Cleanliness is a greatest virtue which should be followed by.....
15. C. It is not a forceful act but we should do it peacefully. It keeps us healthy mentally, physically, socially.....
16. motionless during times of low wind speeds could reduce bat deaths by more than half without significantly affecting power production. It is stated the death rate of bats may be mitigated yet it is clear bats also fly when the wind pressure is high and the turbines rotate fast. Hence, they cannot be completely saved.
17. A. Refer to the first and last lines of the passage.
18. B. For centuries, the enormous ice sheet covering So when NASA scientists realized that Greenland's glaciers had begun melting much faster than expected... it's estimated that sea level around the world
19. B. Diamonds, brought to the Earth's surface in violent eruptions of deep volcanic rocks called kimberlites, provide a tantalising window into the deep Earth. Refer to the first and second lines of the first paragraph.
20. A. Science attempts to explain the events with which it deals. It provides the cues to why a particular They were not propounded as infallible truths.
21. B. Business could have been managed as an art in the last centuries, but in today's world no longer business can do without specialist staff. They all are the products of scientific education.
22. C. Horticulture gives farmers a higher income, but there is little protection against a glut.
23. B. Horticulture also lends itself to greater mechanization, and with its spread, might have an impact on farm employment.

24. C.and in rational morality as a divinely plotted cause that could transform human lifeRousseau, too, was a deist – but he wanted to turn this outlook upside down. Conventional rationalism was conservative

25. C. But the fall from grace is not complete – our essential nature remains good.

26. A. the rich ensure that the law entrenches their massive advantage, inventing lucrative public-sector jobs....

27. B. there should be a minimal form of religion, or quasi-religion, concerned with loyalty to the state – "civil religion".

28. B.

29. A.

30. B. The author is emphatic that changes have to be introduced in the management education.