

Answer Key and Solutions

Exercise- 2

1. C. In 1894, India Government first circulate details of information regarding the bee culture as promotional measure.
2. A.following European methodologies.
3. A.linguists themselves have also pointed to the inadequacies of this traditional viewpoint, for it is clear that the listener is as active as the speaker in elaborating the content of the message.
4. A.in which "bits" of information are transported via a channel from transmitter to receiver. (not bits of information but incessantly compatible content delivered by the speaker and understood by the listener).
5. C. Refer to the first line and last line of the passage.
6. C. However, disruption can also be caused by.....
7. C. Mind does all human mental functions which are physiological processes.
8. D. Refer to the last line of the passage.
9. B. This statement is beyond the passage and not discussed at all.
10. C. In the strict sense of the term, it signifies.....
11. B. Refer to the last line of the passage.
12. C. Historically, the world over, either by law or by custom, the status of women.....
13. B. This nowhere discussed in the passage. The portal is mainly to organize the taxpayers to pay the tax without any efforts.
14. C.knowledge behind India's myriad handicrafts and handlooms is a major challenge.
15. C. This is the suitable explanation which is befitting to the overall idea of the passage.
16. A. Refer to the first line of the passage.
17. C. In a world ravaged by over-consumption of natural resources, this ancient Indian philosophy.....
18. D. The entire passage has only religious practices in Tibet vs China's domination.
19. C. opposite and foil are synonyms.

20. A. Unmarried men are best friends, best masters, best servants; but not always best subjects; for they are light to run away; and almost all fugitives, are of that condition.
21. C. . A single life doth well with churchmen; for charity will hardly water the ground.....
22. C. Because a young man has a reason to marry but an old one need not have...
23. C. Has technology become a convenient way of side stepping deeper institutional problems that plague the sector?. This rhetorical question has an implied answer, Yes, there are problems.
24. A.but also in terms of the implications for teaching practices.
25. C. The entire passage is about how the government wrongly perceived the reality and took incorrect measures to control the fall of the rupee.
26. A.
27. D. The sustained fall in the manufacturing sector is discussed in the passage.
28. B. Both the policies have to be regulated in a synchronous manner.
29. B. The Government did not cut, especially the fuel subsidies.
30. C.