

Answer Key and Solutions

Exercise- 7

1. C. , Forster is even more concerned with the right and wrong of human interactions..... The novel explores the many rights and wrongs of Empire and the way in which the native Indian population was oppressed by the English administration.
2. C. Because the British thought that the Indians were born bad and could not correct themselves. They were not ready to observe their true personalities.
3. B. Discreet. The author carefully studies the objectives of the novel.
4. B. However, the story of the Sundarbans,.....They found that mangroves stabilize shorelines by slowing erosion and provide natural barriers protecting coastal communities from increased storm surges, flooding and hurricanes. Refer to the last line of the passage as well.
5. A. The tides in this 10,000 sq.km. swamp are so dramatic that about a third of the land disappears and reappears every day. It has been happening for centuries, but the changes have become more extreme in the past few decades. Refer to the last line of the passage as well.
6. C. Refer to the last paragraph of the passage.
7. C. For photosynthesis to take place, plants also need carbon dioxide that is found in the air. Animals and people help in providing carbon dioxide for the plants to make food when they breathe out.
8. A. The passage says that plants produce food for animals and human beings. It does not contradict that plants are the main sources of food production. Hence. To increase the food reserves, more plants are required.
9. B. The modern consumer is ever evolving and is shunning the traditional media sources like TV and .....forms namely the e-commerce sector. .... that 72per cent of Instagram users make purchasing decision based on products seen in their feed and 80per cent of Gen Zers and 74per cent of millennial report that social media influences their shopping habits’.
10. B. Generally, it is a beneficial strategy for any brand so long as you the time and resource to develop.

11. A. It is certain that one needs to have the knowledge on how to use internet to buy products online.
12. B. They'll create more and bigger dead zones where nothing can live,...
13. C. This threat demands the type of aggressive action that only certain groups and countries are taking.
14. B. Aeroplanes are designed to withstand incredible forces, so although engineers are cautious, there is often nothing to worry about.
15. C. A double engine bird strike is extremely unlikely.....
16. B. ....PPP exchange rates based on the McDonald's sandwich that sells in nearly identical form in many countries around the world.
- 17.C. Dosas cannot be used for comparison because it is not a common international food .
18. B. Refer to the first and last lines of the passage.
19. B. But pigeons navigate over relatively shorter distances, in the region of tens to hundreds of kilometres. Migratory birds, on the other hand.....
- 20.D. Every year, billions of small songbirds travel thousands of kilometres between their breeding areas in Europe and winter refuges in Africa.
21. B. Hindustani classical music has its origin as a form of meditation and is based upon ragas and ...The artist is indeed like a worshipper, who again and again sees God.....Its origins lie in existing religious, folk and theatrical performance practice.
22. B. Refer to the 3rd and 4th paragraph of the passage.
23. C. . Words are one of the most powerful tools that we as humans possess; they can ignite revolutions or defuse tension
24. C . The problem is that words are underestimated as being central....
25. A. It can be assumed if it can control the pollution level in Delhi , it can be used to control the pollution in other industrial areas. The results have to be the same.
26. D. ....with existing clouds in an effort to thicken them and increase the chances of rainfall.

27.D. In the next three years, as per a McKinsey report, India is set to emerge as the world's third-largest passenger vehicle market. By 2040, the number of vehicles per 1000 inhabitants is anticipated to increase almost nine times.

28. D. Intervention is required to improve the road safety. The Indian car sector has served as a conscientious stakeholder. With industry-wide awareness campaigns across states, it has demonstrated acute cognizance of its role.

29. B. .... and that the primary goal of humanism is the establishment of a one-world government.

30. A. Unyielding